

epilepsy WORKS

Creating opportunities and pathways toward meaningful employment

Job Discovery

Identify the strengths and interests of the individual and match them with the needs of the employer, ensuring mutual success in the workplace

Education and Awareness

Explore individualized seizure action plans, engaging in seizure first aid classes and developing reasonable accommodations when needed

Coaching and Support

Provide job coaching and employer support through on-site skill development, mentorship and long-term partnerships

Why Employment Matters

Employment fosters pride, happiness, and a sense of community while offering opportunities to discover new skills, explore careers, and build relationships. Jobs provide financial rewards, personal fulfillment, and opportunities for growth.

Why We're Here

Over 16,000 local teens & adults need support finding meaningful work, and stigma or lack of accommodations create barriers. Navigating employment with epilepsy can be overwhelming for both the employee and employer, but we're here to help.
